
Autumn 2007 CONVOCATION DEADLINES for Humanities Graduate Students

If you plan to graduate in December, please note the following instructions and important deadlines. Failure to adhere to these directions may make you ineligible to graduate.

If you have any questions regarding the information below, please contact Miranda Swanson, Assistant Dean of Students, at 773/702-8498 or by email at miranda@uchicago.edu.

SEPTEMBER 28 – DEGREE APPLICATION

A completed degree application must be submitted on-line through your cMore account by 5:00 p.m. CST on Friday, September 28. Students who cannot access cMore should contact the Assistant Dean of Students prior to the degree application deadline for assistance. Students should be sure their anticipated graduation date is correct in cMore before completing the degree application. Requests to submit degree applications after the deadline will be denied.

Ph.D. Students – You must be registered in either Advanced Residence or Extended Residence during the quarter you plan to graduate. This includes summer quarter. Doctoral students are assessed a one-time $55 Dissertation Fee in the first quarter in which a degree application for the PhD is filed. Students should visit the website of the University's Dissertation Office to review requirements and submission deadlines: <http://phd.uchicago.edu>.

M.A. or M.F.A. Students – As long as you have fulfilled the course requirements for your program and do not have to take any courses during the current quarter, you do not have to be registered in the quarter you graduate.

Incompletes – Students with more than two incomplete requirements should not apply for a degree this quarter.

OCTOBER 26 – WITHDRAWAL DEADLINE

Withdrawing A Degree Application – Students may withdraw a previously submitted degree application without penalty until 4:30 p.m. CST on Friday, Oct. 26. Students may withdraw the degree application in cMore through the end of the first week of the quarter. After that students who wish to cancel a degree application must contact the Assistant Dean of Students. Students who cancel a degree application after the fifth week of the quarter will be assessed a $50 cancellation fee, regardless of the reason for cancellation.

OCTOBER 26 – NAME CHANGES

If you would like your name to appear differently on your diploma than it currently appears in official University records (e.g., by adding your middle name or middle initial), you must submit a notarized name change form to the Registrar's Office by Friday, Oct. 26. You may obtain the name change form and have it notarized for free in the Registrar's Office.

OCTOBER 26 – DEGREE VERIFICATIONS

If the university does not have final transcripts showing your degrees from the colleges or universities you listed on your degree application, you will need to submit an official transcript verifying these degrees by Friday, Oct. 26. You can check with the Dean of Students Office to find out if all of your prior degrees are on record.

OCTOBER 26 – CONVOCAATION MAILING

The Registrar's Office will mail information about Convocation attire and times to the address that you provided on your degree application. If you do not receive this information, you can contact the Registrar's Office at 773/702-7891 or check their website at www.uchicago.edu/convocation.

PRIOR TO NOVEMBER 21 – OUTSTANDING COURSES/REQUIREMENTS FROM PRIOR QUARTERS

Any incomplete courses, M.A. papers/theses, exams, language requirements from previous quarters must be finished sufficiently in advance of Wednesday, November 21 for your department to submit final grades to the Registrar's Office by this date. Note: provisional grades are NOT permissible for outstanding coursework from previous quarters.

NOVEMBER 21– TUITION/FEE DEADLINE

You must have all restrictions cleared and have a zero account balance with the Bursar's Office by Wednesday, November 21 at 3:00 p.m. NOTE: Students who have outstanding balances may not be allowed to graduate.

NOVEMBER 21 – CONVOCAATION ATTENDANCE

If you indicated on your degree application that you would attend convocation but have since changed your plans, or if you indicated that you would not attend but now will be attending, you must inform the Dean of Students Office by Wednesday, November 21. If you will not be attending convocation, the Registrar's Office will mail your diploma to you, but you must provide a diploma mailing address

PRIOR TO NOVEMBER 30 –PROVISIONAL GRADES DUE FOR CURRENT QUARTER

If the courses you are currently taking this quarter are necessary to complete your degree requirements, you should inform your professors in the beginning of the quarter that you expect to receive your degree in the current quarter and that the Registrar's Office will be asking for provisional grades by Friday, November 30. In other words, you should arrange with your professors to complete any necessary coursework in a timely manner so that they have sufficient time to grade your work and submit a provisional grade no later than Friday, November 30.

DECEMBER 3 - CONVOCAATION TICKETS

Each participant in Convocation receives four (4) tickets. Tickets can be picked up in the Dean of Students Office beginning on Monday, December 3. If you need additional tickets, you should contact the Dean of Students Office at 773/702-8498 or by email at miranda@uchicago.edu to be put on the waiting list. Extra tickets are limited and are distributed on a first-come, first-served basis, so it is best to call early. Also, please do not request extra tickets unless you are sure that you will need them.

DECEMBER 7 – CONVOCAATION

Convocation will be held on Friday, December 7 at 3:00 p.m. in Rockefeller Chapel. For more information about the ceremony, please visit <http://www.uchicago.edu/convocation/>.
